

THE JOHN TERRELL AWARD PROCESS

- Any active MGA member may nominate another active MGA member or a previous MGA member by either submitting a letter or speaking to an Executive Committee Member.
- The MGA member nominated for The John Terrell Award should meet the following criteria:
 - * Has been or was an active MGA member for five (5) years
 - * Has/had a good knowledge and understanding of the MGA Golf Association
 - * Has/had served and been an active participant on one or more committees
 - * Has/had helped to make the MGA a good and active association
 - * Has/had gone 'above and beyond' normal service
 - * Is/was a credit to the game of golf, to the MGA and to The Golf Club at Cypress Head
- The MGA member may be nominated and approved at any time.
- The Executive Committee will review all nominations and make the final determination. Acceptance of the nominee will be made by simple majority.
- Announcement of The John Terrell Award recipients will be announced at membership meetings.
- Recipients will receive a plaque for The John Terrell Award in addition to having their name placed on the wall plaque at The Golf Club at Cypress Head.
