

WINTER 2018 CONCERT PROGRAM SPONSORSHIPS

For nearly 15 years, West Hartford Women's Chorale (WHWC) has offered a unique cultural opportunity in our community. As a non-auditioned women's chorale, where any woman can sing, WHWC has brought quality vocal music to the community through our annual concerts and benefit performances. This year, over 95 women from West Hartford and surrounding towns sing with the Chorale. Our concerts consistently bring in audiences of 300 or more.

The Chorale also collaborates with other community groups and supports music education through an annual scholarship to a graduating senior from Hall or Conard High School and donates to Gifts of Music, a West Hartford Public School program. In March, 2018, our Festival of Women's Voices brought together women from 5 area choruses in a collaborative concert that raised funds for The Aurora Women and Girls Foundation.

Won't you invest in our vision to broaden our community commitment while celebrating women's vocal music with our community? Please consider becoming a Program Sponsor.
