

Walking with God by lcl

Mic 6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does Jehovah require of you but to do justice and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God?

1Jn 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

Notes:

- Walking with God is not only possible, but encouraged and required by God for approval.
- A walk with a friend is a pleasing passage of time, not to be rushed but cherished. Many things can be discussed for profit and leading to wisdom.
- Walking humbly prevents us from focusing on ourselves and enables us to think and see truths with God's wisdom more clearly.
- Walking with someone prevents us from rushing ahead or falling behind. Rather, we are in sync and in unison united together. We explore the path ahead one step at a time without impatience or worry knowing that a friend is near to help overcome obstacles.
- Walking implies a forward motion leading to achieving a desired goal with a steady determination. The slow steady walk enables one to be aware of the surroundings so as not to stumble or go astray off the correct path.
- Walking gives exercise to make one healthy and strong in body.
- Walking with God aids in right thinking and a unity of spirit.
- God enabled those in Christ to walk with Him by allowing The Holy Spirit to reside in and as part of every believer. The Holy Spirit provides a means to guide, teach and converse with God, thus fulfilling God's desire to walk with His people continually.
