

Biden's Overreach

'We're going to protect vaccinated workers from unvaccinated co-workers.' Is this the most profound and inane statement ever uttered by a president of the United States? Let's dissect that sentence. Isn't the vaccine supposed to protect any person from contracting the disease? Webster's defines vaccine as: "a preparation that is administered (as by injection) to stimulate the body's immune response against a specific infectious agent or disease." Now how is it that an uninfected and unvaccinated co-worker is supposed to be a threat to the worker?

Better yet, since COVID-19 is transmitted person-to-person, why would someone get a vaccine if not to prevent person-to-person transmission of the disease? It seems that since the vaccine is protection from the disease, no other protection should be necessary, unless...UNLESS the vaccine is not effective at stimulating that immune response in the first place. Have we all gone crazy? This virus is 99%+ survivable. Less than 1% of the population is at risk of being hospitalized by contracting this virus, and a far less percentage is in danger of death from it. Our brain dead President and his sycophant staff are making life miserable for 99% of the nation to defeat a virus that is 99% survivable. And, the virus will NEVER be defeated. We can't eradicate this disease - never will, as proven by data in the most vaccinated nation on earth, Israel.

Even the government has admitted that vaccination at this point in the 'pandemic' is only therapeutic; it lessens the effects of the virus, just like Regeneron, Ivermectin, Hydroxychloroquine, and many other therapeutics. The Constitution of the United States, our founding document, is now being ground into the earth by the jackbooted thug Dictator in Chief telling the American people that he is 'getting impatient' with us and that he would get Republican governors 'out of the way' if they resisted his mandates to stop the virus. How many Amendments he has violated would take a Constitutional scholar to figure out. This is beyond out of control and the American people (and that includes you too Democrats) had better wake up. There will not be an America if this is allowed to stand.
