

Ogren, Alene

Alene Beth Ogren, 79, died at John C. Lincoln Hospital in Phoenix, Ariz. on Dec. 27, 2000 after a short illness. She was born on March 6, 1921, in Elkton to Allan and Adeline (Roth) Eby. She graduated from the Elkton High School. Alene lived in Glendale, Ariz. since 1973. Alene lived a full and varied life. She was a L.P.N. and started the Scenic Convalescent Home in Pigeon. While living in Arizona, she managed a restaurant and owned and operated a day-care business before retirement. Alene leaves behind a grieving husband, Jack Ogren; two sons, Alan Ogren and James Ogren, both of Arizona; two daughters, Patricia and Beth, also of Arizona; 11 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and her only brother, Edwin Eby of Elkton. She is preceded in death by one son, Thomas Ogren; and one daughter, Dawn, both of Arizona. A memorial service was conducted in Glendale, Ariz.