

3/13/20

To all our wonderful family, friends and followers... Like you, we're monitoring the latest news about the coronavirus.

It is with the utmost concern for the safety and well-being of our UCSO community at-large that we temporarily suspend our concerts and rehearsals.

This delay makes it only more difficult to contain our excitement for the climactic season finale which is awaiting us!

The orchestra will premiere the new work from the brilliant, young, Saint Louis composer and performer, Kendrick Smith.

And, finally... The winners of the William Schatzkammer Young Artists Competition will perform!

Never before have so many richly gifted and highly disciplined young artists challenged our judges to give them a spot in the ultimate highlight of our season!

We are closely monitoring Coronavirus (COVID-19) and following the current guidance from the leading government and health authorities to ensure we are taking the right actions to protect our musicians, audience members and the community.

We continue to monitor this evolving situation and will keep you informed of future updates.

Thank you for your continued loyalty and support,

Sincerely,

Dave Mayo

President, UCSO Board of Directors
