Biography

Walter A. Brennan, age 78 passed away on Thursday, October 12, 2022 at his home with his family by his side. Wally was born on July 23, 1944 to the late Walter and Florence (LaBuda) Brennan. He was born in San Diego, California at the Marine's base hospital where his father was stationed. He grew up on a farm in Capac, MI and graduated from Capac High School in 1963. Wally loved sports and hunting. He played baseball in high school; he hunted and trapped while growing up on the farm in Capac. He was an avid gardener who seemed to be able to grow any kind of vegetable. He spent many hours in his garden and took great pride in his work, loved to golf, and was a Detroit Tiger fan. Wally was owner and operator of Brennan's Men Shop and Lady Brennan's for 42 years, retiring in 2016. People from all over the state would travel to shop with Wally.
