WHAT'S UP WITH

WERKMAN

TRANSPORT

1301540 AB LTD

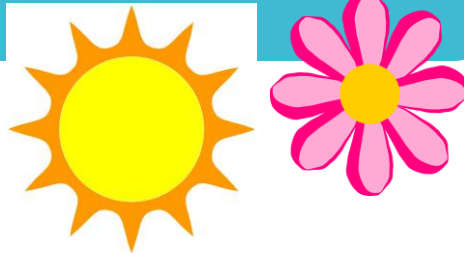

FRIENDLY REMINDER!

Just a friendly reminder when submitting photos of your paperwork, please remember that Jessica needs a copy of every page from that specific load. This is very helpful for her when processing the weekly paperwork and prevents her from trying to track you all down on Mondays!

*Daylight Savings this weekend.
Sadly we lose an hour of sleep
this weekend, buuuut! The days will start to get brighter earlier!*

HERE WE GROW AGAIN!

We have a few new members to welcome this month!

Welcome back Cornelis VanDeKamp! Cor has joined us again after making a complete recovery! He is joining 1301540 this time around!

SPOTLIGHT

Welcome Tom Warren to the team! Tom is a seasoned driver with many years of oil field experience! He originates from the USA and is a US Army Veteran!

We also have a new Lease Operator to welcome to Werkman! His name is Henry and his company, Hensco Transport, will be the very first day cab that has pulled a Werkman trailer!

The lucky driver to be featured this month is Sid DeWindt! (chosen by complete random draw!)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

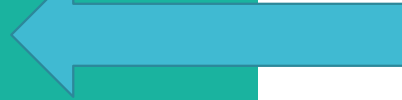

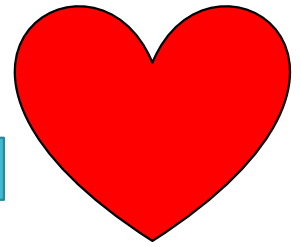

Werkman has no birthdays in March! One of my pugs turns 4 this month if that counts ☺

-“What movie makes you laugh time and time again?”

Sid-Uncle Buck

-“What is #1 on your bucket list?”

Sid-To go to my parent’s homeland, Holland. They both immigrated to Canada 11 years apart, met in Canada and got married!

Some interest was expressed in holding a summer BBQ get-together with our Werkman family! I would love to get your feedback and perhaps start to plan a Saturday event in July or August! Fire me an email or a text if you have any ideas!

When the ground looks like this photo, please remember to use ice cleats when walking. Icy conditions will lead to falls which can happen in the blink of an eye!
