

Post 543 Orientation

Are you new to American Legion Post 543? Are You Interested in what Post 543 is doing? Do you want to know how you can play a part in the 70+ programs our Post runs and supports? This is your chance to learn about Post 543, meet the Post officers and ask questions about the Post, what it does and how we do it.

Come to Post 543 Orientation on Monday, February 17 at 9:00am in the St James Community Center. The Post officers and various committee chairs will offer a presentation describing their programs and how you can help these important programs to continue and grow.

Please, come Monday, February 17 at 9:00am in the St James Community Center and discover how your active participation in our Post can affect the lives of veterans, active duty members, local youth and our community.