

Sprague, Christopher M.

Christopher M. Sprague, 42, of Caseville, formerly of Bay Port, died suddenly Saturday, Jan. 24, 2009 at his home.

Chris was born Jan. 1, 1967 in Bay City.

He grew up in Bay Port and graduated from Laker High School in 1985. Chris worked doing construction with his father, at Active Industries in Sebewaing, and most recently bartending at the Blue Water Inn in Caseville.

He enjoyed fishing in Saginaw Bay and hunting for deer and elk. This past Christmas he offered to have his hair shaved off to raise money for local charity. He was a loving son, father, brother and will be remembered as being a good and kind friend to many people.

He is survived by his daughter, Alicia Marie of Caseville; mother, Phyllis Dubey and father John Pantelis; stepfathers, Gary Sprague and Rick Babiszewski, all of Bay Port; siblings, Amy (Tom) Gettel of Sebewaing, Candace Krohn and Erika Sprague of Bay Port, Ryan Sprague of Unionville and Kristen Pantelis of Bay Port; grandfather, Russel Sprague of Bay Port; uncle, John (Bev) Dubey of Caseville and aunt, Patricia Braun of Essexville; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Robert and Phyllis Dubey and Nick and Kate Pantelis; and uncles, Robert and Louis J. Dubey.

A memorial service will be at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 27, 2009 at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with the Rev. John Gunden of the River's Edge Church officiating.

Visitation will be between 2 and 5 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to the family. Condolences may be shared at www.cfcCaseville.com.
