

Murdock, Everett

Mr. Everett Murdock, 76, of Minden City passed away Monday, Oct. 7, 2002, at his residence under hospice care. Everett was born on Aug. 27, 1926, in Detroit to the late Alger and Lela (Reava) Murdock. He married Ada Uhl on Sept. 9, 1963, in Ohio. Everett was a 1944 graduate of Minden City High School. He worked on the Murdock Brothers Farm until he retired in 1989. He was a member of many associations, including the Ford & Fordson Collectors Assoc., Cast Iron Seat Collectors Association, Classic Thunderbird Association, American Welders Association, National Federation of Independent Businesses (NFIB), and Michigan Milk Producers Association for years. He enjoyed antique tractor conventions and glass top globes for old gas pumps. Everett is survived by his wife, Ada, of Minden City; one daughter, Karen Murdock of Minden City; one son, Larry Murdock of Minden City; and one brother, Wallace Murdock of Ubyly. He was preceded in death by one brother, Martin Murdock, in 1924. Funeral services for Everett Murdock will be at 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, 2002, at the Smigielski Funeral Home in Minden City. The Rev. Robert A. Srock, pastor of Jeddo United Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Downing Cemetery of Deckerville. Visitation will be from 7 to 9:30 p.m. today, noon to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, and 11:30 a.m. until the time of service Thursday at the funeral home. Memorials requested to the Family Discretionary Fund.
