

. . . about the council vacancy.

Mayor Michelle Walker resigned as mayor February 22, 2017, and Anthony McDaniel was sworn in on February 27, 2017.

This leaves his Council Position 4 vacant. Position 4 currently takes primary responsibility for the area of Public Safety, acting as liaison with the council and members of city staff and the citizens. The Roy City Council is accepting applications to fill the vacancy until March 24. Applicants must be registered to vote and must have been residents within Roy city limits for at least one year.
