Nancy Bulkeley is the Community Affairs Representative for Dominion Nuclear Connecticut. Nancy has been in the Nuclear Industry for 17 years, in the areas of human resources, communications and public affairs. In her current position, Nancy is responsible for representing her company and its policies and programs in the community. She is the primary interface to local governmental and community groups not only in nuclear related discussions but as a key interface for the local charities that are part of Dominion's focus as a responsible member of the community. Nancy has served on committees and boards for several non-profit organizations in her community. From 2011 to 2012 she was the chair for the United Way of Southeastern Connecticut. She is President of the Long Island Sound Foundation Board, a Trustee for the Chamber of Commerce of Southeastern Connecticut, on the board for Southeastern Connecticut Enterprise Region (seCTer) and is a board member for Operation Fuel. She supports education programs through tours, community outreach, special events, and establishes and promotes minority outreach programs.

Millie Devine is a graduate of Waterford High School, Waterford, CT, and received a BA with honors in business administration from Upper Iowa University, Fayette, Iowa. She is a graduate of the New England School of Banking at Williams College with a trust major and a 1978 graduate of the National Graduate Trust School at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. She is also a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA) and an Accredited Estate Planner (AEP). Millie has had a long career in the Trust business currently Vice President & Trust Officer at Dime Bank. She has administered numerous private foundations and serves as Chair of the Grants Committee as well as Secretary for Waterford Education Foundation.

Olympia D. Gregory, RN, CNM, MSN is owner and founder of The Olympia Center for Women's Wellness. Olympia is a Certified Nurse Midwife who has been involved in traditional Women's Health care for more than 25 years. Educated at Yale University School of Nursing, she also has a Master's degree in Psychology. She worked as an Outpatient Mental Health Therapist in New Haven prior to deciding to become a Nurse-Midwife after witnessing the birth of her nephew. This background has directly led to her unique approach to the care of her patients. Her goal has always been to empower her patients to take an active role in their own health and wellness and therefore their lives. She has long been interested in alternative and complimentary healthcare practices and truly believes in the ability of the body to heal itself as long as there is alignment between the body, mind, and spirit.

Beverly Goulet has served the city of Norwich as the Director of Human Services for over 28 years. Through her leadership, three divisions were unified (Rose City Senior Center, Youth and Family Services, and Adult and Family Services) to bring in over $600,000 in grants to Norwich and effectively help over 5000 children, families, adults, and seniors each year.

Jim O'Shea is an organizational development specialist, business coach, and training facilitator with more than 30 years of experience in business.
