

Duane W. Peasley age 49, of Pigeon passed away Sunday morning, July 12, 2015, at McLaren Bay Region Medical Center, Bay City after a long illness.

He was born on November 20, 1965, in Pigeon, the son of Judy Ann Bivens and lived most of his life in Huron County.

Duane attended North Huron High School, class of 83. Before becoming ill, he worked in Bad Axe, at Thumb Industries, work services.

Duane was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. He enjoyed the listening to music, reading history and war books and loved anything pertaining to Star Trek.

Duane is survived by his mother, Judy Ann Bivens of Pigeon two uncles and aunts, John and SuzAnne Bivens of Elkton and Lester and Beverly Bivens of Kinde and many cousins.

Preceding him in death was his grandmother, Vera L. (Edler) Bivens.

A memorial service will be conducted at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day-Saints, in Bad Axe 1:00 PM, Friday July 17.