"Hybrid" Meeting Announcement

In-person &/or Zoom option at the North Side Social Club 71st & Keystone Ave.

World War II Round Table Hybrid Meeting

The WWII Round Table will host our first Hybrid meeting on Monday, September 28, 2020 at 7 PM. Hybrid means that a live audience will be gathering at the Northside Events and Social Club (formerly K of C) located at 2100 E. 71st Street, Indianapolis, IN 45240. Additionally, the meeting will be available on Zoom simultaneously and participants should sign on between 6:45 and 6:55 so that we may start on time. Our guest speaker, Kayleen Reusser, author-historian will be joining our program via Zoom from Ft. Wayne.

The Northside Events has established protocols for people attending. We must abide by their rules! The dining room is limited to 50 people maximum. Therefore, if you wish to attend, you MUST RSVP no later than Sunday, 9/27—and you will receive a confirmation if there is space available.

PLEASE RSVP via email to Karl Kleinbub at:

knj1002@myнинestar.net or 317-607-6948

The dining room will open at 6 PM, salads by 6:15 PM. Tables are 6 feet in diameter and will accommodate 4 guests only.

Masks must be worn when entering, moving about the facility, while at table not eating and upon leaving. Temperatures will be taken when entering the dining room. General health questions will be asked. If you have any doubts about your health, stay home and join by Zoom.

Each person will be charged $11.00 for the meal before the meeting. Please bring the correct amount of cash only. This will reduce unnecessary money handling. If you choose not to eat dinner, please stay home or pay the $11.00 Thank you!

An ordering menu with three selections will be at every seat

Select the choice you prefer and the server will place the order. Salad, tea and water are available at each table. Servers will refill when needed.
There is no food line, table service only.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM SPEAKER WILL BE KAYLEEN REUSSER

Reusser resides in Ft. Wayne and will speak to us from there via Zoom. More details on her program will be forthcoming in the newsletter shortly after Sept. 14th.

Kayleen Reusser has just completed the first book in her new Witnesses of War series, where she shares stories of youth during World War II, most of whom grew up in Europe. The release of the new book, titled It was Our War Too: Youth in the Shadows of World War II, will be in September and brings a different perspective to the traditional World War II stories we have heard or read over the years. In this photo she is standing in one of the fox holes used by the Easy Company of the 101st Airborne in WWII at Bastogne, Belgium. Did you know that WWII RT members Andy Anderson, Bob Begeman and John Brill have also visited this famous spot as well?

Be sure to join us with a RSVP to Karl Kleinbub for Dinner or via Zoom from your home!

Hybrid Portion Zoom

If you are familiar with Zoom, the WWII Round Table meeting information is as follows:

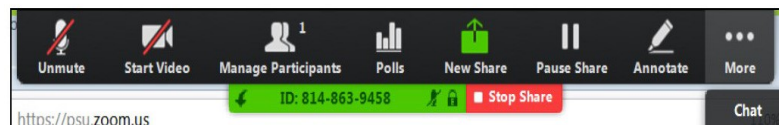

Charles D. Russell is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

Topic: World War II Round Table 28 September Meeting & Program with Kayleen Reusser

Recommended Sign On Time: Sep 28, 2020 06:45 PM Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Please click the link below between 6:45 and 6:55 and you will be admitted.

Next, do a mute/sound check. Be sure you are muted so as not to interrupt the speakers! To mute yourself, click the Mute button (microphone). A red slash will appear over the microphone icon indicating that your audio is now off. If you wish to ask questions at end of program, press down the space bar.

Zoom Meeting Starts 7 PM EDT

It is important that everyone should be on and ready no later than 6:55 pm so that the program can start on time. Charlie Russell admits each of the participants and needs to also get the live portion rolling as well. Just click this link to join:
