Course: Glen Riddle War Admiral Blue/ White - Blue Wh
Weather: Sunny 80 Humid

Another beautiful day in Ocean City and War Admiral took its toll on us - it seemed like every green was raised and there were hidden hazards on many holes. It was cart path only so we often took 3 clubs to the fairways which were wet from heavy rain overnight. Mike wins by 4 over Ed by avoiding the big number. Greg makes the only birdie on a hole that Mike had a 7 and Ed had an 8. This is a great track and difficult - the fairways were not in great shape but the greens were smooth and quicker than the first 2 courses on our trip. Bruce did not play DGA again but thankfully was able to play and his shoulder seemed to be ok (he shot a net 76). The 18th hole was diabolical - long and it had a long carry over the marsh to a raised green. Ed was the only one to go for it in 2 and he did make it over but had to play his 3rd shot out of the hazard.
