

Remember Me

You know I am going to go there, how could I not? By His death, Jesus not only saves you from sin and death, but makes you “one” with God. The sacrifice Jesus Christ made was essential. You know it, and I know it. Do this in remembrance of me isn’t just about the last supper. It’s about His life

Jesus eliminated the debt owed by mankind—the debt of sin“Of the last sayings of Christ on the cross, none is more important or more poignant than, “It is finished.” Found only in the Gospel of John, the Greek word translated “it is finished” is tetelestai, an accounting term that means “paid in full.” When Jesus uttered those words, He was declaring the debt owed to His Father was wiped away completely and forever” (Got Questions Animated Series).

The Gospels are not just a collection of Jesus’s sayings, but are historical narrative that show you the way and the final days of Jesus need to be remembered. From His triumphal entry on Palm Sunday to His incredible Resurrection, each day carries an impartation of Heaven’s purposes for your life. Remembering is key to living it.

Ever since the fall of man in the Garden of Eden, mankind needed a redeemer—needed a sacrifice. Jesus is the Messiah. He is the Son of God- who came to save you from your sin. Had Jesus not gone through with His selfless sacrifice, you would have remained dead in sin and separated from God.

It is the very essence of Who God is and His testimony is one of God with you. The final days of Jesus lay out the truth of God’s plan for humanity and how you fit in the tapestry of His Kingdom.

You need to recognize your areas of sinful condition before you see a need for change. Daily change is not only needed, it’s vital. Each day, you should be changing. Each day, you should become more and more like Him.

There is still a lot to be learned about important act that shaped the world you live in. His final days are there to instruct you, encourage you, challenge you and can change you (if you let them).

The last week (and His whole life) can help give you the determination to say within yourself, “That is the example in which I need to follow.”

Rev. Dr. Gina Cobb
March 29, 2018