

Eternal Daily Grace by lcl

Grace, like many things from God is given daily to remain fresh, current and foremost in our thoughts. God desires our fellowship to be renewed daily with Him that it never becomes old, tired or stale. He desires to be a continual presence in our lives.

God desires a continued relationship with his creation of mankind. Every day offers the hope of a fresh new beginning with the rising of the light. Early sacrifices were given morning and evening. Later, offerings seeking grace were recorded in the morning. We are to seek god and His grace on a daily basis. Thus, we ask for daily bread, representing our needs, to be filled by god just as he provided for the food needs of Israel every morning while they were in the wilderness. Jesus is even called the bright and morning star. He is truly the one offering a new beginning to all who accept Him. His coming embodies a new start under grace and a fresh hope for a new and better life. His sacrifice lasts eternally, but our relationship and thanks are due on a daily basis so we do not forget the great gift of salvation He offers. We are family, as sons and daughters of God, and should remember each other and converse often.
