

Negroes Egos

Negroes Egos

Hold Afruikan people back.

White Supremacists (WhiteS) thinking,

In skins of Black.

Negroes Egos,

Damn, it's a crying sin,

WhiteS destructive minds,

The Black-man calls kin.

Crabs in a barrel,

Forever under attack.

Other crabs climb out,

While the Black crabs,

Pull each other back.

Being Afruikan

Is more than the color of your skin.

It is the essence of Ubuntu,

Emanating from within.

I know other people,

That I can call kin,

Who are more Afruikan,

Than Negroes in Black skin.

Negroes will be Negroes,

As far as I can see.

They take your kindness for weakness,

And humility for stupidity.

170921 George Mac D. L