

Kuhn, William

William Joseph "Bill" Kuhn, 61, of Kinde, died Dec. 19, 2001 at Lawnwood Medical Hospital, Fort Pierce, Fla., following a long illness. He was born in Bad Axe on March 1, 1940, to Clara (Santhany) Kuhn and the late William Kuhn. Bill graduated from Kinde High School and attended Michigan State University where he received an Ag Sales and Service degree. On Aug. 18, 1968, he was united in marriage to Lorna Maxwell at St. Mary's, Dwight. Bill had been the Monsanto plant operator in Kinde for a number of years. He became a salesman for AO Smith in Huron and Sanilac counties. Later, he became a self-employed farmer and a Super-Crost seed dealer until 1980 when he established and operated Kuhn Farms Market in Pinnebog. It closed in 1997 due to health reasons. Bill was a charter member of the Kinde Fire Department Board. He was best known for his kind heart and his wonderful sense of humor. He enjoyed visiting with family and friends, collecting antique farm equipment and building horse-drawn wagons. He is survived by his wife, Lorna; three sons, Martin Kuhn and his wife, Ann, of Fairhaven, Allen Kuhn and his wife, Stephanie, of Port Austin, and Eric Kuhn and his wife, Heidi of Woodinville, Wash.; grandson, Collin; mother, Clara Kuhn of Umatilla, Fla.; sister, Mary Day and her husband, Ron, of Umatilla, Fla.; aunt, Mary Lupinski of Arizona; mother-in-law, Elizabeth Maxwell of Port Hope; several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. A memorial service will take place Tuesday, May 14 at St. Felix Catholic Church, Pinnebog. Rev. Fr. Joseph Schabel and Sr. Mary Schwartz will officiate. Memorials may be given to the donor's choice.
