RACE RESULTS

Mother Nature finally cooperated and the MCs got in a few races on Saturday morning. Sunday morning was clear and the Es got in one race. The Lightnings stuck it out for two, choosing to go for a shorter second race in a light to dying breeze. Guest Lightning skipper Dave Chervenec for race 1 in 15156. In the E fleet, we had Bill Campbell on the sticks for KU-10!

STRONGEST CORE

Friday night saw an informal 'planking' contest develop.

According to Wikipedia, a plank is "an isometric core strength exercise that involves maintaining a position similar to a push-up for the maximum possible time." Around ten people of all ages joined in and it came down to Tyler Hill and Carre Doyle who 'faced' off to the finish! Tyler outlasted Carre.

NO WIND?

What better time to break out the Spike Ball set? Here four dads—Rick Gordon, Joe Meade, Matt Newman, and Henry Dalrymple—enjoy some friendly competition on Father's Day afternoon.

BEAUTIFUL BLOOMS

Thanks to Maria Hudson for the colorful potted plants and ferns.

Thanks also to Stephanie Welch and Steve Bender for the potted plants at the main dock.

Check out the specials at the bar or just ask Sophie to make you one of your favorite drinks.

Here's a Dark 'n Stormy ready for sipping!

If you haven't come to the KYC for dinner—here is a look at what you've been missing. You'll have to stop in to let your other senses absorb the delicious aromas and taste!
