

Peggy Johnson
Coroner
Vermilion County Illinois

Peggy Johnson was born in Danville, Illinois November 4, 1952, day of elections. Peggy has been married to Glenn R. Johnson for 38 years. Peggy Johnson is a proud mom. Peggy's children are David Johnson, Jesse Johnson and Sarah (Mrs. Jeremy) Strawser. Peggy Johnson is also a proud grandma of Audrey and Carson Strawser.

Peggy states, "I've been in the crisis services business for over 30 years. First as legal advocate and then program Director of the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault services at the YWCA. I've been with the Coroner's Office since 1993 starting in the capacity of Chief Deputy and I've been the Coroner since 1999. I'm currently serving my fourth term."

Peggy Johnson performs her services with work ethic diligence and respect for the public. Her position as Vermilion County Coroner requires a special handling approach and Peggy Johnson has most definitely fulfilled the requirements and more through demonstration of her quality interventions.