CIMCE / CEU Credits/Hrs. Three (3)

Location: TBD / Webinar

Instructor: Jeff Torres, Interpreter Training Group

Method of Delivery: Instructor Led / Live Webinar

Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific three (3) CIMCE/CEU credit/ hour course will familiarize the student with driving under the influence (DUI) investigations and will cover the different aspects of alcohol, Marijuana and narcotic induced impaired driving. Along with familiarizing the student with impaired driving investigation protocol, the class will include explanation of specific law enforcement, judicial and medical terminology associated with driving under the influence of alcohol, Marijuana, illegal narcotic and prescription drugs. Students will also learn the physiological affects of impaired driving and the specific medical and forensic terminology used in conjunction with impaired driving field sobriety tests (FST's) and investigational analysis.

This course is designed to educate the Interpreter regarding impaired driving investigation terminology, physiological affects of impaired driving, investigation protocol and specific medical procedures and protocol involved during criminal investigation. Furthermore, this class will include explanative dialogue in regard to specific and related terminology involving testimony from DUI investigation experts, medical experts, and other entities associated with driving under the influence (DUI) investigation and protocol.

Instructor / Provider Bio.

Jeff Torres is currently a full-time Law Enforcement professional with over 25 years of law enforcement experience, supervision and training. His vast experience as both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations including, but not limited to, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, White Collar, Fraud, Sexual Assault and Death Investigation, which makes him uniquely qualified to present on topics that directly impact the work of professional Interpreters in the judicial, medical and social services fields.

Mr. Torres' experience as a Narcotic Task Force Supervisor, combined with his many years of Patrol experience, has led to his ability to speak professionally on topics related to current illegal drug trends, criminality and the operational tactics of organizations supplying them to our communities. Furthermore, Mr. Torres has had many years of training in regard to a variety of weapons and firearms platforms used by law enforcement, criminal organizations and the community at large. As a result, Mr. Torres has extensive knowledge in regard to the use, make-up and technical aspects of many types of firearms and non-ballistic weapons.

As a Field Training Officer, Operations Patrol Sergeant and Criminal Investigations Supervisor, he has trained and mentored many newly assigned peace officers in police operations / investigations, safety tactics and many other "officer safety" considerations. Furthermore, Mr. Torres' tenure as a law enforcement professional has allowed him to gain specific knowledge as a "first responder" and understands the effects and causes of vicarious trauma and the personal and professional impact it has on individuals who are affected by extreme violence or exposure to highly emotional and/or stressful situations on a continuous basis.

Mr. Torres is certified by the California State Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training and currently possesses Basic, Intermediate, Advanced and Supervisory Certification which is issued to Peace Officers who have attained defined levels of academic education, law enforcement training, supervisory experience and years of service in the law enforcement profession.

As the Director and Founder of the Interpreter Training Group, Mr. Torres has had extensive public presentation experience and has conducted numerous training sessions nationally with associated professional groups. The information contained in the workshops and webinars presented by Mr. Torres will be presented through live "in person" or live webinar interactive lecture, electronic presentation, hand-out literature, "hands-on" training aids and items specific to the presented educational topic. Furthermore, Mr. Torres' interpreter
