Dear Brothers,
 We did a lot of “Spring Cleaning” this past month - all new ceiling tiles, sconces in the Hall and a new highly secure front door improving Council safety. Thank you to all the Brothers who volunteered. It was nice to see us continuing to demonstrate our principles of Unity & Fraternity. There are a number of events coming up:
 - Council Officer Interviews 5/4 7-8 p.m. & 5/12 8-9 p.m.
 - Knight at the Races 5/22 all proceeds fund OLOR Council.
 - Memorial Day Parade 5/25 meet on W. 18th St. The 10th Annual Fluke Fishibg trip is posted in the lounge, sign up and pay as this sells out quickly. Wishing a Happy Mother’s Day to all.
 Respectively
 GK SK Brian Breckles

“Spring is proof that there is beauty in new beginnings.” As the world awakens with fresh color, so does our spirit of service and sisterhood.

We celebrate another successful Bunco event, with thanks to our co-chairs Bobi, Donna, and Debbie, and all who volunteered and helped to wrap baskets. We also hosted the Suffolk Chapter’s Day of Recollection, bringing together over 34 women in faith at SSCM.

Please mark your calendars for our upcoming events: Monday, May 11th, is our regular meeting with hospitality at 7:00 PM and the meeting starting at 7:30 PM. We will honor the Blessed Mother by crowning her statue and praying the Rosary, and we will also hold our “Shoe and Shampoo” Baby Shower for Respect Life Ministry. See Flyer.

Tuesday, May 12th, the Go Green Clothing drive truck arrives for pickup. You may bring donations to Monday’s meeting or Tuesday evening; we also need helpers to load the truck

Tuesday 6:00-7:00 PM.

Saturday, May 16th at 5:00 PM is the SSCM Volunteer Mass and reception.

To all our mothers, may you be blessed with a heart full of joy and a day as beautiful as the love you give so freely. Wishing you all a wonderful Mother’s Day.

Peace and blessings,

Geri

Crowned in May: Why the Church Honors Our Lady This Month

For centuries, the Church has set aside the month of May as a time of special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This tradition, deeply rooted in both nature and faith, emerged most clearly in medieval Europe, where May - marked by new life and blossoming beauty - naturally lent itself to honoring the one who brought forth Life Himself. By the 18th century, the custom of “May devotions” had spread widely, encouraged by pastors and embraced by the faithful as a simple yet profound expression of love for Our Lady.

The Church’s liturgical calendar further enriches this devotion. During May, we celebrate significant Marian feasts such as Our Lady of Fatima (May 13), recalling her call to prayer and conversion; the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (May 31), highlighting her charity and humility; and, in many places, traditional May Crownings, where the faithful honor Mary as Queen of Heaven.

Within our homes, this Marian month invites a renewal of family prayer and devotion. A simple home altar with an image or statue of Our Lady, adorned with fresh flowers, can become a focal point of daily prayer. Families might gather, even briefly, to pray a decade of the Rosary together, entrusting their intentions to her maternal care. Teaching our young ones the meaning of these devotions, sharing stories of Mary's apparitions, and invoking her intercession at the beginning and end of each day helps to root faith in the rhythm of family life.

Equally important is imitation. Mary's virtues - her faith, humility, and readiness to serve - provide a model for our charitable works and fraternal service as Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes. To honor her is not only to pray to her, but to live as she did: always pointing others to her Son.

In honoring Mary this month, we do what generations before us have done: entrusting our lives, our families, and our mission to her maternal care. And she, in turn, never fails to lead us closer to Christ.
