Biography

Ronald Skipinski, age 86, of Ubly, passed away on Monday, January 6, 2025. He was born on May 26, 1938, in Ubly, Michigan, to the late Edward and Agnes (Dropiewski) Skipinski. Ronald was a lifelong resident of Ubly and was a member of St John's church. He enjoyed farming. Ronald was a man of simple pleasures, taking great joy in Friday fish dinners, Polish food, and speaking Polish with his dear friends. Ronald was also a fan of polka music, enjoyed visiting the Ugly drag strip, and was a loyal supporter of the Detroit Tigers. His love for classic vehicles was evident in his passion for car shows and swap shops. Ronald cherished the visits from his nieces, nephews, and great (and great-great) nieces and nephews. Though he was never married, Ronald had a strong network of close friends and family who regularly checked in on him, ensuring that he could remain comfortably in his home. Ronald's quiet kindness and good-natured spirit will be missed by all who knew him.
