

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What

is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (DAY)
A CALL TO LIVE A NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

May 18/19, 2024

The Lord Jesus told His disciples that He was teaching them many things, but they would not understand, and it would be the Holy Spirit who would help them to understand. Today, we celebrate the fulfilment of that promise.

In the Old Testament, there was nothing like the Holy Spirit; He was known as the Spirit of God. The Spirit of God was given to the leaders chosen by God to lead His people, the prophets, priests and kings. Moses was filled with Spirit of God, and it was some of the Spirit which was taken and given to the seventy elders selected to help Moses, (Nm.11:24-30). The Judges were also known as charismatic leaders because it was the Spirit of God who guided them. Saul and David were all filled with the Spirit of God after their anointing as kings.

In the New Testament, during the conceptions and births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the Spirit of God was present. Mary, Joseph, Zacharia, Elizabeth and John the Baptist were all filled with Spirit of God. Jesus Himself was filled with the Spirit after His baptism.

It was at the time of the Prophet Joel that the Lord God promised to send His Spirit on all flesh including servants and handmaids, (Jl.3:1-5). It would not be only the leaders who were going to experience the presence of the Spirit in their lives, all flesh.

This was fulfilled during Pentecost. On Pentecost day, the Church was born, and the unity of mankind which was destroyed during the building of the Tower of Babel was restored. People from all walks of life who had come to celebrate the feast of Pentecost in Jerusalem could hear the apostles speaking in their own languages. All people became one in the Lord.

From the day that the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, they were transformed, and they lived a totally different life. They were filled with courage and wisdom. They could proclaim without fear that Jesus is Lord, and they understood the Scriptures and had full knowledge of God. Their love for God's word was strong and they began to live a life of love, kindness, and simplicity. They had a strong desire for prayer and closeness to the Lord. They understood what salvation really means and a new perception about the world and what it offers; that what the world normally offers is contrary to what the Lord wants. They received different gifts to offer different services and works to build the community, as we just heard.

The Holy Spirit is symbolized by things which are not human, but they show His actions in our lives. As fire, He destroys the sin in us; as water, the Spirit refreshes, cleanses and gives us life; as dove He brings peace and purity of heart, and as wind, He blows wherever He wills.

There is no way we can be faithful Christians without the help of the Holy Spirit. This is clear in the lives of the apostles and other disciples. Even when Jesus was with them, they could not live true Christian lives as they did after Pentecost. Before Pentecost, they were cowards, greedy, selfish, ambitious, and their minds were all on earthly things. But after the descent of the Holy Spirit, they considered everything as worthless except life in Christ.

Have you been baptized and confirmed? What happened during those events? Do you know that you have had your Pentecost experience as the apostles had? What kind of transformation has gone on in your life? Am I living a life in the Spirit that enables me to glorify God by my life? What is my attitude towards sin? Do I have love for everybody I come into contact with? Like Jesus, the disciples did not fight back when persecuted; is that my attitude too when offended? Am I filled with courage to witness to Christ? What is my knowledge and understanding of the word of God and the teachings of the Church? Am I generous and kind? If I am not able to live like the disciples after Pentecost, then I have to ask myself whether I deserve to be seen as a true Christian or a part-time Christian.