WESTERN DRESSAGE RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR WDAA SHOW #18-111

Western Dressage Rules and Tests are based in equine dressage fundamentals and showcase applications for the Working Western Horse. They were devised through a collaborative effort on the part of member feedback, the evaluation of respected horse people and equine organization and then revised and edited by a special division of our education committee. More information may be found at <https://files.usef.org/assets/K7L0A5C0NDQ/30-wd.pdf>

It is strongly recommended that western dressage riders wear approved safety helmets at all times while mounted.

The Rules are designed for use by judges and show managers, but also for riders of all experience level. See www.westerndressageassociation.org. The Rules are a wonderful educational tool with highlights that include gait descriptions, movements, goals and objectives – all of which lend to a progressive learning and training program regardless of intent to show or ride in any other discipline. They are mindful of the mission of the WDAA in which we honor the horse and provide a safe, comfortable and fair environment to explore the discipline.

WDAA AWARDS PROGRAM:

- ◆ WDAA Register Of Merit is awarded when the horse has earned 35 points
- ◆ WDAA Register Of Achievement is awarded when the horse has earned 100 points
- ◆ WDAA Register Of Excellence is awarded when the horse has earned 200 points
- ◆ WDAA Bronze Medalist is awarded when the horse has earned 300 points with at least 5 tests submitted riding Level 1 or higher
- ◆ WDAA Silver Medalist is awarded when the horse has earned 400 points with at least 5 tests submitted riding Level 2 or higher
- ◆ WDAA Gold Medalist is awarded when the horse has earned 500 points with at least 5 tests submitted riding Level 3 or higher
- ◆ WDAA Supreme Champion is awarded when the horse has earned 700 points with at least 5 tests submitted riding Level 4 or higher

Points can be earned only at shows that are recognized by WDAA. The requirements for shows to qualify for recognition are not difficult, and the rewards can be very significant because owners and riders participating in the growing WDAA Points & Awards Program have special incentive to attend Recognized Shows. WDAA is now offering double points for scores earned at USEF-licensed shows for tests judged by USEF-licensed Western Dressage judges. All of the details can be found on the following web link. <http://www.wdaaworldshow.org/wdaa-horse-performance-awards-program/>
