Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific six (6) credit hour, Instructor led course*, will outline and familiarize the Interpreter with current laws, investigations, terminology and trends as it pertains to Human Trafficking in today's world. This class will bring to the forefront the current day elements of human trafficking and those who are involved as both suspects and victims. Learn terminology, victim/interpreter interaction considerations, cultural and societal aspects, as well as criminal procedures and techniques that bring these cases to courtrooms around the country. This course will not only cover Human Trafficking as it pertains to sex trafficking, but also the robust international business of human trafficking for "hire" and which is carried on in cities across the country in a shockingly regular fashion. *Course may also be presented via webinar with "live" interactive Instructor participation and moderation.

Instructor(s) / Provider

As a veteran law enforcement professional with over 30 years of service, Jeff Torres brings his vast experience as both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations which included, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence and Death Investigation to name a few. Mr. Torres' knowledge of criminal justice investigative processes and procedures brings to the language professional many years of industry specific terminology and procedure-based knowledge from both the "field" and justice system perspective. Additionally, Mr. Torres oversaw the daily security operations of a California Superior Court for several years where he oversaw all aspects of courtroom/court facility security, bailiff and law enforcement operations. His daily interaction with court proceedings, interpreters, court officers, court administration, court assigned deputies and the general public has given him a comprehensive and unique global perspective into the daily operations of the court and those who serve within
