Day Trip to Porvoo

📍 Helsinki - Porvoo - Helsinki

After breakfast at the hotel, head out for your day trip to Porvoo. Founded nearly 800 years ago, Porvoo is the second oldest city in Finland and evidence of its long history can still be seen and felt as you walk along its charming streets.

Old Porvoo is one the most picturesque places in Finland and inspires photographers around the world. It has retained its traditional shape right down to the cobblestone streets. Historically, Porvoo has been an important center of trade and its famous red shore houses were once used to store goods and produce.

The city's intimate interior design shops are famous throughout the entire country, with styles varying from antique and romantic to modern and state-of-the-art.

Porvoo is also home to a few famous chocolate makers such as Pieni Suklaatehdas and Brunberg's Chocolate Factory, who also have a shop in Old Porvoo. Chocolate aside, another sight to see is Porvoo's Old Railway Station, which has become an interesting combination of old and new—the building houses a hardware store, upholsterers and an ironmonger, as well as an art gallery and summer café. In the warehouse beside the old railway station is a gift shop selling souvenirs, local handicrafts, and organic foods and pastries—a little something for everyone.

Another sight you cannot miss while in Porvoo is Porvoo Cathedral, located at the heart of Old Town. Built at the turn of the 14th century, the cathedral's remarkable history has seen it burn down five times, most recently in an arson attack in 2006. Following the devastation, the cathedral was renovated for two years, finally reopening to the public in 2008.

During your day in Porvoo, you will stop at a local restaurant in the town for lunch. After your day comes to an end in this beautiful town, you will travel back to Helsinki and end your journey at your hotel.

Dinner is on your own this evening.

Explore Helsinki

📍 Helsinki, Finland

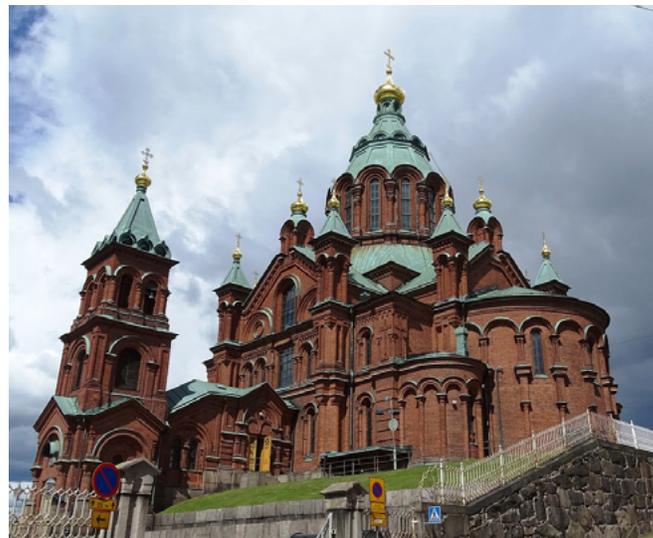

After breakfast, you will begin your explorations of the city. Spend your day traveling around Helsinki like the locals on board Helsinki's wonderful public transportation network of trains, trams and ferries, as you view some of the most famous sites of the city.

First, travel by ferry to Suomenlinna Fortress and Museum, one of Finland's most popular attractions. This UNESCO World Heritage Site contains an 18th-century sea fortress, nature area with centuries-old artillery and defensive walls, and even a church that also serves as a lighthouse, all spread across 6 linked islands. Take time to explore with your local guide, learning the history and importance this island fortress played in Finnish, Swedish and Russian history.

After your tour, take a break and enjoy lunch at a restaurant on the island before taking the 15-minute ferry back to Helsinki.

Back on the mainland, continue your sightseeing day by visiting Helsinki Cathedral, Uspenski Cathedral and Temppeliukio Church with your local guide. Located in the center of Helsinki you cannot miss Helsinki Cathedral. Originally built from 1830-1852 as a tribute to Tsar Nicholas I of Russia, the large square surrounding the cathedral, Senate Square, has become the stage of national and academic festive services for the capital.

Following Helsinki Cathedral, stop by Uspenski Cathedral, the main cathedral of the Orthodox Church of Finland. Completed in 1868, the Cathedral is the largest orthodox church in Western Europe and a symbol of Helsinki. Last but not least is Temppeliukio Church. Opened in 1969 by the design of architects and brothers, Timo and Tuomo Suomalainen, it was built directly into solid rock and it is often known as the Church of the Rock. It serves as a church in tune with nature, but also holds concerts as well.

A final farewell dinner will be provided this evening at a local restaurant.
