Clinician Learning from Coronavirus COVID-19 is a continuing medical education* self-reflective course about what you learned (i.e., from research, listening to podcasts and/or planning of clinical care of COVID 19 patients).

PLEASE DO NOT CLAIM CREDIT FOR SHIFT HOURS WORKED! (This does not meet the AMA definition of CME* – see below.)

As a physician, nurse or PA, you may choose to complete this form describing *what you learned from the COVID-19 emergency and submitting it to the Office of Continuing Medical Education where we will issue CME credit (upon approval of your form).

The dates applicable are only per the Governor of Michigan's Executive Orders.

Accreditation

Central Michigan University College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Central Michigan University College of Medicine designates this Other activity (Clinician Learning from Coronavirus COVID-19) for a maximum of ___ AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This activity qualifies for AOA Category 1-B credit as approved by the Council on Osteopathic CME of the American Osteopathic Association.

*The AMA defines continuing medical education (CME) as ... educational activities which serve to maintain, develop, or increase the knowledge, skills, and professional performance and relationships that a physician uses to provide services for patients, the public or the profession. The content of CME is the body of knowledge and skills generally recognized and accepted by the profession as within the basic medical sciences, the discipline of clinical medicine and the provision of health care to the public.
