

Our Indoor Soccer Spot Expectation of Conduct

Teams and spectators are expected to show good sportsmanship and act in a positive, friendly and sporting manner, showing respect for league officials, other players, and referees while playing or visiting Our Indoor Soccer Spot (the “Spot”). This includes communication among team managers and league officials.

Team managers and captain/co-captains are expected to follow the Spot’s Expectation of Conduct and administer their teams in a manner that ensures the overall health and enjoyment of the league. Captains are required to help control offending players and fans, ensure each player has complete membership and waiver, and communicate to referees and/or management any problems observed with matches, officiating, and field conditions. The league officials have the full power and discretion to impose penalties on all violations of the Spot’s Expectation of Conduct. For violations not listed, the penalty shall be decided at the discretion of the league officials.

The Spot reserves the absolute right to refuse participation to any participants on a short-term or permanent basis due to unfit health status, including recent injuries and communicable diseases, for the benefit of the individual player and other participants.
