

The Newark Walmart Management Team led by Assistant Manager Melissa Gagner and HR leader, Trudi MacBride stopped into the Newark Police Department to drop off two "care packages" of drinks & snacks. They also provided packages for the Newark Fire Department and Newark-Arcadia Volunteer Ambulance personnel.

The recognition is part of a "For All You Do" campaign led by Walmart Store Manager Pearl Miller to show appreciation for First Responders and thank them for all that they do.

Newark Police Officers Jacob Jackson and Ethan Derr were extremely grateful for the treats provided by Trudi MacBride.
