

Aenon Bible College & Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc.

2019 International Deacon Continuous Religious Education (CRE) Certification Symposium

“The Highly Effective Deacon”

2019 PAW Summer International Convention

Objective & Purpose:

1. The purpose is to help build up the community of deacons in the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World so that they may realize their full potential in Jesus Christ and the Church as a whole.
2. The objective of this CRE workshop should encompass an introduction of being a highly effective deacon in the local churches and an overview of three (3) general leadership dimensions of a deacon’s ministry: an effective deacon in the home, in the local church and in the local community.
3. The goal of this continuous religious education forum is to enhance the life of faith and further the quality of the deacon ministry in our local churches.
