The Academy is modeled on the National Victim Assistance Academy, the nation's premier training and education program for professionals who assist victims of crime. The Academy offers a rare opportunity to live, work, study and interact with victim service providers from all areas of advocacy. While it is assumed that students have had previous training in their area of specialization, this course provides a fundamental overview of the entire field of advocacy including victimology, victim rights, and victim assistance for residents in Maryland.

RVAAM Goals

1. Provide a broad spectrum of basic advocacy training that will standardize the training of crime victim advocates in Maryland.
2. Expand and enhance the level of professionalism within the victim services field.
3. Provide an opportunity to network with other victim service providers.
4. Increase knowledge of national, state, and local resources.

Academy Partner

The University of Baltimore is located in the cultural district of Baltimore, the economic, cultural and governmental center of Maryland. UB offers more than 50 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs. Students acquire long-term learning skills that help them meet the challenges of a 21st-century career.

"I had the privilege to participate in the June 2004 RVAAM. An assembly of academics and professionals from a variety of disciplines and professionals embarked upon a week of full itinerary. We concluded with an unbreakable bond of wisdom, resources and friendships. The forum provided an opportunity to dialogue, expand and heal. To those brave men and women who found the strength to disclose their personal testimonies of how they evolved from victims to become victors: and to those who dedicate a full-time work week to provide support, assistance, and knowledge, I thank you. Thank you for allowing me to be in the midst of your growth."
