Youngstown State University - July 9, 10

It's time once again for the YSU Summer Festival of the Arts. Please join me this weekend for the annual event that showcases the area's finest art and artists. I'll be there with some new additions to my usual pen and ink drawing style and custom creation sculptures. It's looking like the weather may actually cooperate and provide a perfect backdrop for the show that takes place on the main campus grounds. Hope to see you this weekend.

New coaster designs will be on hand. ▶

While you're on the YSU campus, why not walk over to the Butler Institute of American Art and check out the national Midyear Exhibition, to see my 50 x 33" digital painting titled "Dandelions."

It's the first time my work has been accepted to the national competition.
