April 14, 2018 Saturday Odd Stone Open House 11-4

Do you have some stones that you have collected and have no idea what they are? Today at the open house, Shari and I will try to identify your stones for you. Bring your odd stones over to see if we can tell what they are (don't expect too much). At the very least Shari may be able to get a message from the stones for you.

April 15, 2018 Sunday Open House 11am to 4pm with Sandra
Squire available for readings

Sandra will be available for readings. Born with the gift, Sandra "sees" the pictures and "hears" the words that help people. Sandra uses the Four Winds, Four Feathers Earth Oracle. Sandra can help you move through all Money, Career, Love and Health challenges in a good way! Her readings are $2.00 per minute with a 15 minute minimum.

Call 480-423-9512 if you need directions.

April 21, 2018 Saturday Tarot Deck Swap Day Open House 11:00 am to 4:00 pm

You have a deck of Tarot Cards, you have used them for years and years. Time for a new deck. Bring the decks you wish to exchange.

Bring a deck take home a different deck. We have had this open house before and it is a lot of fun. Everyone tells about the deck that they have brought and then they choose the next deck that they will work with.

April 22, 2018 Sunday National Earth Day Open House 11:00 am to 4:00 pm

Mother Earth has blessed us with her amazing children. Let us celebrate her in all her glory. Stop by and tell us how you work with your stones and what do think we can do to help preserve our home. As one sage once said we really must protect the earth; it is the only planet in the solar system that has chocolate. (not to mention all the beautiful stones).

April 28, 2018 Saturday National Superhero Day Open House 11-4

Today is National Superhero Day. When my Nephew was young he would run through the house wearing a cape and insisted on be called He Man. Superheroes show us how we should behave in the real world. Let us try to become Superheroes in our own lives.

April 29, 2018 Sunday National Pet Parents Day Open House 11-4

I love cats, however I do not recommend that you wrap up your cat like this if you like your face. Pets will put up with a lot from us. Let show them the love that they show us on National Pet Parents Day. Maybe we could give them a special treat or take them for a walk (now I am talking about dogs). The animals love it when we show them any attention.

May 5, 2018 Saturday Reiki 1 Class 11am to 4pm taught by Larry Moore
RSVP is required (space is limited) Fee $150 per class or $250.00 for both classes if prepaid.

Reiki is the Universal Life Energy and is safe to use at any time. This has been translated as Rei: Spirit/Soul/Universal and Ki: Energy/Life Force/Breath. Let me share with you techniques passed down from my teachers, as well as practical applications learned in years of practice. We will start with learning the history of my lineage (non-traditional), passing of attunements and practice of self-treatment as well as treatments as a group. I look forward to being with you all in a loving atmosphere sharing within the Light.

Having worked as a medic in the USAF, a suture tech in a pediatric ER, an RN experienced in a variety of settings and specialties as well as a Licensed Acupuncturist for many years, Larry brings an extensive and varied background in the healing arts to share with you. He has taught massage and Asian theory at several schools around the Phoenix area and looks forward to a day of sharing theoretical and practical applications to participants.
