Code of Conduct for Vacation Bible School:

1. Vacation Bible School (VBS) is an opportunity for children to grow stronger in their Faith and closer to God. Behavior that is not respectful to other participants or to adults who are volunteering to work will not be tolerated. If your child exhibits unacceptable behavior while at Vacation Bible School you may be called and asked to pick them up, and your child may be asked not to return for the remainder of VBS.
2. Vacation Bible School will be full of activities, games and a lot of fun! It is for that reason that other belongings such as video games, toys, etc., should be left at home. House of Prayer Ministries By Faith is not responsible for items that are lost or stolen.
3. If your child owns a cell phone we do request they do not bring it to Vacation Bible School. Your child will have access to a phone to call you if they need to, but they do not need to have a cell phone on their person during VBS.
4. Vacation Bible School is staffed by committed volunteers who are giving of their time for the children of the church and community. VBS will meet June 18th - 22nd from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m. Your child must be picked up at the church no later than 8:30 p.m. You also must check your child out - please do not just leave with your child until you have let the registrar know that you are leaving. This is for your child's safety.
