

Expect a Response!

When a person is a child of God, that person belongs to God. He knows them, His eyes is ever on them and He hears their prayers. God created you. God designed you to be in close relationship with Him. There are pages upon pages in the Bible about God's intentions towards you. His intentions towards you are good.

God created you and knows infinitely more about you than you could ever know about yourself. He is interested in every detail of your life. He hears your prayers and answers every sincere prayer. There are many scriptures that encourage us that He hears you.

“Does the one who makes the human ear not hear? Does the one who forms the human eye not see?” (Psalm. 94:9). It is God's faithfulness and righteousness that prompts Him.

Psalm 34:15 tells us, “The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their cry.” This verse tells us that God listens to the righteous. God listens to His people all the time.

Today be encouraged with the truth this His eye is upon you as He listens to your heart! He hears each petition and He understands your need before you ask.

Today display your confidence that He is with you, and listening to each cry of your heart, for He says, “Fo the LORD responds when I (you) cry out to him” (Psalm. 4:3).

Today is the day to expect a response. God is sovereign. He has all wisdom and all knowledge. He knows the future. He knows YOUR future! Want to hear one more really cool and amazing thing? He allows Himself to be influenced by our prayers. How awesome is that? So come on...you've got His ear....

Oh Heavenly Father,

Thank you for hearing me. Today, I call onto you again! I declare that You are my God, my wonderful Father who has blessed me with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus. The blood of your precious Son Jesus cleanses me from all unrighteousness and doubts. You chose me in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. You adopted me as Your own through Jesus Christ, and You steadily lavish Your love upon me.

I rejoice that at this very moment in time You have declared in advance that You hear me when we call to You. Through Your Son I have clean hands and pure heart and I can ascend unto the hill of my great, magnificent Lord. I ask for breakthroughs in my life, breakthrough in my emotion and breakthrough in my relationships.

I lift every member of my family before You, asking You to touch and change them. I ask for the manifestation of healing to come into every area of their life in Jesus' name. I thank You for the truth of Your Word that You hear me and will answer me. I will expect a response from You because You said You would answer me when I call to You!

Examples in scripture:

- David's prayer was heard: "I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies. ... In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried out to my God; He heard my voice from His temple, and my cry entered His ears" (2 Samuel 22:4,7).
- "Call on me in prayer and I will answer you. I will show you great and mysterious things which you still do not know about" (Jer. 33:3).
- "Before they even call out I will respond; while they are still speaking I will hear" (Isa. 65:24)
- God heard the prayer of King Hezekiah and extended his life (2 Kings 20:1-6).
- The psalmist's declaration of his faith that God will hear His people when they are in distress. "LORD, you have heard the request of the oppressed," the psalmist affirms, "you make them feel secure because you listen to their prayer" (Ps. 10:17).
- James "The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (James 5:16).
- Many answered prayers come through fervent prayers. Let us pray fervently right now knowing that God hears the prayer of the righteous (Proverbs 15:29).
- The ear of the Lord promises not only that He hears His people's prayers, but that He graciously and lovingly answers them for their good (Rom. 8:28).
