

Name _____

On Sunday we talked about everyone living under one roof in the House of Hope. All adults and children are welcome!

Two windows are drawn on the house. Draw a few more.

In each of the windows of the house draw a face looking out showing all the different people who have come together there.

