ALERT: As we all are painfully aware, COVID-19 has affected many plans in 2020. We are optimistic for 2021 as protection from this virus will be rolling out in the 1st & 2nd quarters of the year. That cuts it pretty close for our event. That is why we are not going full throttle on planning. BUT - we are looking forward to the Caleb Bradham birthday celebration at the Pepsi Store (Th PM), a picnic at Jerry Avery's house (about 20 miles outside New Bern, day TBD) as well as our usual Welcome meeting/pizza party and some planning for the future of ECPC (Wed). Don't wait to make your reservations!

NOTE: NEW month!

May 26-28, 2021

Wednesday-Friday

Seems like ages since we have been able to get together! Hope everyone stayed healthy and interested in Pepsi FUN! Thanks to all the connections ECPC and PCCC have made with great people involved with Pepsi, we have been invited to attend a birthday celebration that is held annually in New Bern for Caleb Bradham. So, we decided to accept Sabrina's invitation and join the fun at the Pepsi Store in New Bern for our next ECPC get together! We hope you can join us too. The party is held at the store - and we know how much fun that can be! So, mark your calendars - no presents needed for this birthday celebration!
