Hopping Hill Headlines

13th March 2020

A letter has been sent out today with a Coronavirus update, please visit the following link for further advice:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/guidance-to-educational-settings-about-covid-19/guidance-to-educational-settings-about-covid-19#how-covid-19-is-spread>

We will continue to keep a close eye on government advice, but may need to postpone or cancel school events depending on changes to guidance.

Online safety

Parents/carers are often aware of issues around teens being coerced or tricked into getting undressed or revealing themselves online. However, what do we need to say to the youngest pupils, and why?

Below is a link for a video/song parents/carers might want to use to spread the message of never getting undressed in front of a phone, iPad or computer, for the very youngest primary pupils. Please watch it first to check its suitability for your child: <https://undressed.lgfl.net/>
