About the Institute

This institute will provide participants education and experience in therapeutic techniques that enhance talk therapy. From mindfulness to expressive therapies like music, art, and sandplay; a variety of activity and change of pace can rejuvenate a group. Our goal is to encourage group leaders to try something new - to broaden their skill set and take full advantage of new experiences they can provide.

Workshop Objectives

- Directly experience expressive therapies and mindfulness in a group setting
- Utilize concepts of mindfulness to develop therapeutic use of self
- Articulate therapeutic benefits of expressive therapies
- Explore incorporation of new interventions and activity within therapist's practice
