

Sally Ann Stewart

(September 23, 1942 - November 1, 2012)

Sally Ann Stewart, 70, of Caseville, died November 1, 2012 at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak.

Sally was born September 23, 1942 in Detroit to the late Boris and Arlene (Carnell) Trego. She graduated from Dearborn High School in 1960. On February 16, 1963 she married David Stewart at the Dearborn E.U.B. Church. They settled in Dearborn and raised their family there. She was employed as a real estate agent and by the City of Dearborn as a coordinator at the Senior Center. In 1998 they moved to Caseville, and Sally took a job working at the Caseville Chamber of Commerce. She was an avid bridge player and enjoyed cooking and trying new recipes.

She is survived by her husband David; children Gregory (Cathy) of Clarkston, Laura Stewart (Monica Foust) of New York City, Mark (Mia) of Dearborn and Amy Stewart (Troy Detrick) of Los Altos, California; grandchildren Andrew, Sophia, Andrei, Abby, Katie, Logan and Zoe; and her sister Barbara Konsavage of Wyandotte.

A memorial service will be at 3:00 pm Sunday, November 4th at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with Rev. Linda Fuller officiating. Visitation will begin at 1:00 pm Sunday until the time of the service. Memorials may be made to the Leukemia Lymphoma Society in her memory (www.lls.org).
