

The Trials of this Present Spiritual Climate

01.04.2026

Well, it seems lately that the Lord is visiting me with the things that are really on my heart that I'm praying about finally managed to finish mass. And the Lord really poured out a spirit of supplication in my heart I was able to really cry out to Him. Many things that I would love to see changed and fixed and impossible things, so to speak. So He's using these personal feelings that I have and these tensions, these anxieties as a springboard to share with all heart dwellers what's going on, all of us not just me, right?

So the Lord began, "I've heard your heart rending cries Clare, I've heard them. Do not expect a miracle but do expect some change. It is the season you are in, in your life, this is not yet the season for all to come to fruition."

Mostly I've been begging Him, make some progress in the music.

The work you were doing is far more demanding and life -changing across the board for many souls.

In other words, He's saying, you know, I've got my eye on one thing that I really want to get done, but what I'm actually doing is actually having a deeper impact than what I think I wanted to.

"My dearest daughter, so much is changing so rapidly, so drastically, earth -shaking in more than one way. Oh Clare, do not despair, I have heard your prayers, hang in here with Me as I do what I must do for the Kingdom, your turn will come. But in the meantime, I want you to know that the sufferings of this present times do not even remotely compare to the glory that you will bring forth from the depth of your failures or should I say your perceived failures? So much has been and is still being accomplished through these times of desperate suffering.

Tell your heart dwellers, do not expect to see rewards now, for they are laid up for you on that day but do expect trials of various kinds to come out of woodwork. Will you trust Me if I tell you how powerfully your sacrifices, struggles, rejection, contradictions are in this season of Earth's history? Can you be content to know you are working for Me most effectively by persevering through these trials with no recognizable end in sight."

I don't understand Lord, you are asking for music, etc.

He continued, "you are not supposed to understand. I'm calling you to do this in blind obedience for face value, part of this sacrifice is not knowing the fruits of how it all fits in but I do want you to have fun doing it. I do want to keep you employed creating and I have given you the strength to do just that.

Now He's really been giving me success with the flute, beginning to get my breath back.

"All of you, My beautiful brides are enduring much suffering until I come for you. Remember, I told you this would be a time of purification for you until that very moment when you would be released from all your sufferings. So try to be patient with Me and enjoy the little joys I bring you every day, making light of the heavier things. That effort on your part will please Me greatly, and I know how you love to please Me.

And here I'm thinking, you know, no complaining because that doesn't please him. I know that for sure. No complaining.

“Clare, I do not disparage or condemn you for your carefully timed Dr. Pepper's and Chocolate Chip cookies. Just remember to bless them and know that I'm pleased with every little effort to abstain. Yet in times of extreme trial when you are at your very lowest, I have provided that option for you.

Thank you Lord, I've been feeling that and I'm so grateful for the slack you've given me.

Just be on the lookout for the voices trying to throw you off into a deep ditch of condemnation.

You know like, look what you're doing, eating that cookie. You know you're not supposed to be eating now, you're praying. I can't tell you how many voices of condemnation come in. Okay.

“We're saying, be on the lookout for voices trying to throw you off into a deep ditch of condemnation, that will never be My voice. I always come with gentle conviction, encouraging you that you can do a little bit better with My help. But move on quickly because as you have come to recognize, they are interested in distracting you away from prayer or a message.

All of you, My sons and daughters, be on your guard, lest the enemy bait you with so much condemnation that you lose your focus. They do not want you praying into the many things going on in the world right now. For instance, the distractions against this meeting right now, the constant barking of the dogs behind your house, all of it is created to throw you off whether it be animal or human.”

And we do have a big foot coming by here once in a while, or astral projections, and I know we have that because I'll go out in the yard and the dogs will be barking at a blank spot in front of us and you know, it's the witch hovering.

“For instance, the distractions against this meeting, the constant barking behind your house, all of it is created to throw you off whether it be animal, human or astral projection, the whole purpose is to steal your concentration away from what you were doing. By your decision to ignore them, they lose not you. Go forward now with the understanding of the climate you are operating in. Carry My joy and approval for you in your hearts, for truly I dwell there and am happy with you even in the midst of all your failures and contradictions.

I still am happy with you. I love you dearly.”

That's the end of that.
