

CHRISTINA MONTELEONE - BALLET

INSTRUCTOR (RECREATIONAL)

Christina Monteleone obtained her Bachelor of Science in Psychology with a minor in Dance from Ursinus College, as well as a post Bachelors certification in Family-Professional Collaborations from Towson University. Christina offers over 5 years of teaching experience in addition to her other choreography experience, including Vice President of the student run dance company at Ursinus college and Co-captain of the Ursinus college dance team for 2 consecutive years.

Christina grew up in New Jersey and danced in Philadelphia, PA in numerous programs including the Rock School for Dance Education, where she danced professionally with the PA Ballet in 6 seasons of the Nutcracker and Santanado School of Ballet where she danced with the Wilmington Dance Company. She also has previous experience teaching dance/movement to TBI patients via an internship, and she created her own preschool dance curriculum for Dr. Adele Gammon's Home Play School program. Christina is currently dance at the Bryn Mawr school for her second year. She is very excited to share her love and passion for dance education at N'Ferno Performing Arts Center.
