Throughout Lent we have challenged the church together to read the entire New Testament following the Bible Recap plan. A copy of the reading list is included in this newsletter or for deeper study you can order the Bible Recap study materials by contacting the office or through thebiblerecap.com

We will collect donations of individually wrapped candy for our Annual Egg Hunt through April 13th in the church office.

The Wonderful Cross: A Symbol of Shame Turned to Glory

The cross. A brutal instrument of torture, humiliation, and death. In the Roman world, it was reserved for the worst criminals—a public display of shame meant to strike fear into the hearts of all who saw it. Yet, for us as believers, the cross is not a symbol of disgrace but of hope, love, and redemption. How could something so terrible become something so wonderful?

The Apostle Paul puts it plainly in 1 Corinthians 1:18: "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." What the world saw as weakness, God transformed into the greatest victory of all time—the defeat of sin and death through Jesus Christ.

This transformation is reflected in some of the most cherished hymns of our faith. "The Old Rugged Cross" speaks of the shame of the cross but also the believer's devotion to it: "I will cling to the old rugged cross and exchange it someday for a crown." Isaac Watts' classic hymn "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" invites us to marvel at the love poured out there: "Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all." And Chris Tomlin's "The Wonderful Cross" echoes this truth, declaring, "Oh, the wonderful cross, bids me come and die and find that I may truly live."

The beauty of the cross is that what the world saw as defeat, God used for His greatest triumph. Jesus endured the cross "for the joy set before Him" (Hebrews 12:2) — that joy being our redemption and reconciliation to God. The shame was real, but it was swallowed up in victory.

Historically, the early Christians did not use the cross as a symbol right away. It was too closely associated with suffering and death. But as they came to understand Christ's victory over the grave, the cross transformed in their eyes. By the fourth century, after Emperor Constantine outlawed crucifixion, the cross had become a central image of Christian faith. Scholar N.T. Wright affirms this shift, noting, "Jesus' death was seen not as a tragic end but as the foundation of a new beginning—the new creation that God was bringing into the world through Him."

As we prepare to celebrate Easter, we invite you to reflect on the wonder of the cross and the hope it brings. Join us on April 20th as we rejoice in Christ's resurrection:

7:00 AM – Sunrise Service: Awake the day to see HE IS RISEN

8:00 AM – Breakfast: Enjoy fellowship over a delicious meal.

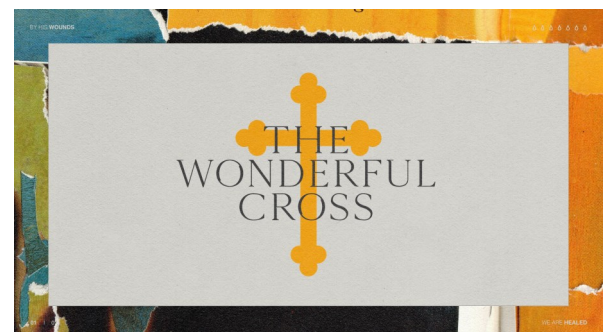

9:00 AM – Easter Egg Hunt: A fun-filled activity for the kids.

10:00 AM – Praise Service: Lift your voices in worship as we celebrate our Risen Savior!

This Easter, may we once again stand in awe of the wonderful cross—the place where shame was turned into glory, death into life, and sorrow into everlasting joy.

See you there!

In His love,
Pastor Ryan Shields

To Our Dear Church Family,

Our family would like to thank everyone for the prayers, love, kindness and support over the past few years shown to Don and our family. Visits from Pastor Ryan at hospitals, nursing homes and in our home, many visits from loving members and friends, beautiful cards, delicious food, phone calls while Don was fighting infection and waiting to have a second hip replacement. The list goes on.

On my way to church on December 15th, I fell on the ice at home and broke my back and had surgery. Once again all of the kindness was repeated. Visits from Pastor Ryan and members, beautiful cards, food and phone calls. Please know our family appreciated all the prayers and love we received during this difficult time.

On our 65th wedding anniversary we received so many beautiful cards. Very surprised and appreciated! We enjoyed receiving the cards and words of encouragement.

Once again our church family took good care of us on Don's funeral day. Thank you for all the memorials, Pastor Ryan for the beautiful service, Ava for the wonderful organ music and Mary for all the preparation for the service. Thank you to all who brought food for a great buffet, all the kitchen help and behind the scenes help. Thank you to anyone I may have missed. Thank you very much. Everything was very much appreciated.

God bless all of you,
Bonnie Weaver & Family
