

“Be not afraid nor dismayed... for the battle is not yours, but God’s”
(2 Chronicles 20:15)

When Israel was threatened by the mighty forces of Amalek at Rephidim, God gave them a supernatural victory. Realizing that God was fighting the battle for them, Moses built an altar to Jehovah-Nissi: The Lord my banner. Hear his words: 'The Lord will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace' (Exodus 14:14 NKJV).

Why then do you discourage yourself into defeat, trying to win the battle in your own strength? You engage in a fruitless cycle of frustrations, resolutions, struggles, discouragement and defeat.

The only sort of spiritual conflict that's ever successfully won, is the one God fights for you. He doesn't expect you to win the battle, only to surrender to him and let him win it for you!

“So am I not supposed to fight at all” you ask? Yes, you're to 'fight the good fight of faith' (1 Timothy 6:12 NKJV).

Yours isn't a battle of exhausting effort— it's the battle of believing.

Excerpts taken from Dan Goodwin, Rhema today.
<https://www.rhema.co.nz/>

Yolanda Adams sings "The Battle Is The Lord's" at the Full Gospel Baptist Convention in 2003
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=psrHczioABE>