

Vocation vs. Vacation

Christianity is an invitation
to vocation,
not vacation.

A vocation implies
dedication;
a vacation is
relaxation.

By vocation
you have to reach;
you spend vacation
on the beach.

By vocation
you follow a call;
on vacation
you go to the mall.

By vocation
you are picked;
a vacation
is a picnic.

On vacation
you are refreshed;
by vocation
you become enmeshed.

Vacation puts you
in remission;
vocation turns on
the ignition.

Vacation brakes;
vocation accelerates.

Vacation travels;
vocation journeys.
Vacation pampers;
vocation pursues.

Vocation doesn't
stop;
vacation likes to
flop.

On vacation
you go to fish;
by vocation
you follow
the Lord's wish.

Those following
a vocation
on earth
are promised
a vacation
in heaven.

© Msgr. Walter Niebrzydowski

July 19, 1998

Fr-Walter@nyc.rr.com

www.fatherwaltersparish.org