

Master Classes and Guest Artists 2015/16

In addition to their rigorous academic and rehearsal schedules, Douglas Anderson orchestra students were coached and attended master classes and performances conducted by musicians from throughout the US.

Master class and performance by Joe Craven and Mamajowali (Mamadou Sidibe, Walter Strauss).

Coaching and guest conductor, Dr. Steven Elisha, Associate Professor String Division, Georgia Southern University.

Guest Conductor Paul Davis, D.M.A. Director of Instrumental Studies, Webster University, St. Louis, Missouri

Guest Conductor Dr. Chung Park, Assistant Professor of Music, Director of Orchestras and String Music Education, University of Central Florida

Coaching and Master Class from guest conductor Dr. Larisha Elisha, Assistant Professor, Department of Music, Georgia Southern University.

Cello and Chamber Master Class with Dr. Wesley Baldwin, Professor of Cello Music, University of Tennessee.

Coaching with Ayako Yonetani, DMA, Professor of Violin/Viola, Department of Music, University of Central Florida

Coaching and Master Class with Lauren Burns Hodges, DMA, viola and Tod Leavitt, DMA, contrabass, Valdosta State University.

Master Class and Performance with award winning cellist, Christine Lamprea.

Harpeth Rising performance and presentation including music composition; Jordana Greenberg -violin, vocals , Rebecca Reed-Lunn -banjo, vocals and Maria Di Meglio -cello, vocals.

Guest Conductor Kelly Hall-Tompkins, violinist for the title role in "Fiddler on the Roof" on Broadway.

Performance and Chamber coaching with the internationally recognized trio of string musicians, Simply Three.

