

Seasoned Times age adds flavor

WE ARE NOT OLD, WE ARE SEASONED!

For most people, the "seasoned" years of life have come along a whole lot faster than we ever would have imagined back in our early days.

But time has given us many gifts along the way. We are who we are because of all the different experiences we have had over the years, and we have the reservoirs of strength, knowledge, and understanding that can only come with age.

Time has sprinkled our lives with many flavors to taste and savor in our "seasoned" years. Later life can be filled with joy, laughter, friendship, love, achievements, satisfaction, and even adventure.

We are not old, we are seasoned!
